LISTS CASUALTIES FROM US AIR ATTACKS

Mukden, 31 August (Hsin-hua) -- A reporter of this paper, stationed in Mukden, has given the following account of the atrocious strafings and bombings by four US fighter planes against Chinese civilian boats in the Northeast on 29 August 1950

At 1745 hours, on 29 August 1950, four US fighter planes flying along the left bank of the Yalu River, entered the Northeast from Korea and headed toward La-ku-shao Ts'un in Ch'ang-tien District, K'uan-tien Hsien. After reconnoitering this area, they proceeded toward Ch'ang-tien-ho-k'ou Ts'un located about one kilometer from La-ku-shao Ts'un. Sighting a civilian boat near this village, they immediately launched an attack, killing one person and injuring two others. After attacking this boat, they headed toward Ku-lou-tzu Ts'un in Ku-lou-tzu District, K'uan-tien Hsien, and sighting another civilian boat, they again attacked. Three persons were killed and five persons were injured as a result of this second attack.

The names of those killed by these atrocious attacks were:

Yin Hsueh-lu (1) [numbers refer to appended characters], age 24, native of Hsia-ho-k'ou Ts'un, Ch'ang-tien District, K'uan-tien Hsien. Died of neck and stomach wounds.
